BURRACOPPIN GOLD PROJECT

- Maiden aircore drill program completed to test for bedrock mineralisation at Crossroads prospect

Moho Resources Ltd (ASX:MOH) (Moho or Company) is pleased to announce the completion of the Company's first aircore drill program to follow up gold and arsenic anomalies on the Crossroads prospect at the Burracoppin gold project, located 22 km west of the Edna May gold mine in WA (Figure 2).

37 reconnaissance air core holes were drilled across coincident gold and arsenic anomalies in soils and auger drill samples at the Crossroads prospect during March 2020 (Figure 1 and 3). The air core drilling also traversed a north – south structure interpreted by Moho's consultant geophysicist and a re-evaluated EM anomaly. Lithologies noted during drilling included biotite schist/amphibolite, granite and quartzite.

Moho is pleased with the performance of the 'zero impact' drill rig contracted from Bostech Drilling which minimises disturbance and sample spoil in the paddocks. The Company would also like to thank the landowners involved for their cooperation during the drilling operation.

Drill samples have been submitted to SGS for gold and multi element analysis after aqua regia digest. Moho anticipates releasing the results in late April 2020, following receipt of the assays and appropriate checks.
